

PARIS DECORATIVE AND FINE ARTS SOCIETY

CULTURAL OUTING TO ROYAUMONT AND CHAALIS

THURSDAY APRIL 4THth 2019

RDV AT 9.45 A.M SHARP AT THE ABBAYE DE ROYAUMONT

Morning : Visit of the Abbaye 95270 Asnières sur Oise

It was built between 1228 and 1235 with the support of Louis IX. Several members of the French Royal family were buried here (and not in Saint Denis Basilica), for example, three children and two grandchildren of Louis IX. The thirteenth century encyclopedist Vincent of Beauvais was a friar at the Abbey as well. The abbey was dissolved in 1791 during the French Revolution and the stones were partly used to build a factory. However, the sacristy, cloister, and refectory remained intact. In the early 20th century, the abbey was bought by the Gottin family who in 1964 created the Royaumont Foundation, the first private French cultural foundation. Today, the abbey is a tourist attraction and also serves as a cultural centre.

Lunch at The Cottage , 5, Avenue du Maréchal Joffre, 95270 Luzarches (10 minutes)

Afternoon at 2.30 p.m. Visit of the Domaine de Chaalis 60300 Fontaine-Chaalis (35 minutes)

In the heart of the Ermenonville forest, come and discover the fabulous home of Nélie Jacquemart-André. A widely experienced collector, she has brought together masterworks of Giotto, Houdon, Boucher, Pajou... All displayed in an interior setting that alternates the styles of Renaissance, 18th Century and Empire.

The visits are guided in French
